PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The Black Liberation Movements Mosaic began in August 2008. Jeremy Ball, Kim Rogers, Susan Rose, and Amy Wlodarski founded the project. The original group of student researchers included Atandi Anyona, James Chapnick, Kyle Coston, Corinthia Jacobs, Ryan Koons, Tiffany Mane, Max Paschall, and Flosa Tejada. The goal of this project was to collect personal narratives by South Africans about apartheid, and Mississippians about the civil rights movement. The historical anecdotes, life histories, and interview and observational data could then be used to illuminate the experience of the general population, preserve cultural understanding, and compare the anti-apartheid and civil rights movements.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The collection is divided into 4 series. Series 1 consists of South Africa narrator interviews: 36 folders of interview transcripts from South Africa (arranged alphabetically by narrator's last name) and 1 folder of South Africa Project materials. Series 2 consists of 29 folders of Mississippi Narrator interviews (arranged alphabetically by narrator's last name) and 2 folders of Contacts and Mississippi Project Materials. Series 3 consists of General Papers: 5 folders. Series 4 consists of corresponding media: audio cassette tapes, DV tapes, and audio and data CDs.
